CHANGING THE ATTITUDE OF U. S. TOWARD

(International News Service.)

GENEVA, Dec. 16—Further discussions have been aroused in League of Nations meeting by Japanese and it was understood today that the Chinese delegation, headed by Dr. Wellington Koo, is sending a note of inquiry to Washington, regarding the future attitude of the United States towards China.

(The Associated Press.)

GENEVA, Dec. 16—Putting an estimate of the effect, intended as a reassuring statement was of assembly of the League today.

The report on Japan

Chinese delegates were angered by the surprising statement of Baron Hayashi, Japanese ambassador, to Great Britain that the United States is in accord with Japan, Great Britain and France as to the future policy of these powers toward China.

OTHER CORPORATIONS

(The Associated Press.) (The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The federal trade commission recommended in its annual report, "stopping of the government anti-trust suit against the International Harvester Company and the institution of 'judicial proceedings' against a number of associations dealing in farm implements, claiming price increases in part are due to 'price agreements between manufacturers and dealers' in Ireland of the kind that have been resorted to that result in peace, that the United States should not remain behind in the world." Mrs. Maria May, of the late Lord May, declared before the commission, "I have been a hundred times investigating these price agreements." She said relief was as her countrymen was

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The United States will be the major power in the world in 1923, unless Great Britain makes changes in her naval program, Secretary of the Navy Dumbledd said today in commenting on press dispatches that Great Britain had deferred her program of capital ship construction until the entire question of naval strength is settled.

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The department officials today made no estimate of the effect of the new tariff on the export of cotton to Great Britain. The officials stated that a clause maintained on the end made into the United States those who have been intended to enter.

Mr. Fulton SERVES GOSPEL CAR TO DAYTONA

Rev. John Fulton, the widely known traveling evangelist, was for 24 hours in a "Gospel Car" in Daytona Beach, Fla., today. The car, which was built by Fulton, is a motor vehicle with a large platform on the back, and a large sign on the side that reads "Gospel Car". Fulton, who is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is a native of New York, and has been traveling for many years. He is now on his way to Florida, where he will spend the winter. He is expected to spend the winter in Daytona Beach, where he will be in charge of the mission at the Sault St. Marie, Mich. Later, he will be in charge of the mission at the Sault St. Marie, Mich. Later, he will be in charge of the mission at the Sault St. Marie, Mich.

Later, he will be in charge of the mission at the Sault St. Marie, Mich.

Through the good grace of Mayor Nixon, H. V. H. Treglowen, E. J. P. and others, Mr. Fulton was permitted to locate his moving home at the rear of the Auditorium and was presented with the keys to this great structure and as well to the city. Last night the party with all of their equipment made their first appearance on Main street, conducting an interesting street meeting. Mr. Fulton has a varying voice and makes a most curious appeal. He did not lack for a large and apparently interested audience.

While he was preaching last night, Preacher Fulton was recognized by Thomas Bishop of the Dixie hotel. They knew each other years ago, and when they came to compare notes they found that Mr. Bishop had often visited Mr. Fulton's hotel.

After spending some days here, Preacher Fulton and his party will proceed to other Florida points. They expect to spend the winter in this state, and hope to visit the principal east coast resorts.

John Fulton was converted 15 years ago. He had been successful in the hotel and saloon business, and had amassed property valued at $50,000. He says he got to thinking seriously one night and asked himself the question, "What will become of my soul if I should die?" He felt that he was on the road to hell, and he made up his mind right then and there to lead a different life. He abandoned all of his belongings and says he expects they went back to the devil, where he got them. He has insistently refused to accept any portion of the property he had gained as a hotel and saloonkeeper. He says that after he gave this all up he accepted any kind of work he could get to make an honest living, and that during the panic of 1907 he got down on his knees and scrubbed the Postal Telegraph building in Brooklyn.

He says after he got a vision of Christ he was blessed as never before. He was given a message for mankind which had brought peace and happiness to his soul. For some time Mr. Fulton was associated with Evangelist John A. Davis at Binghamton, N. Y., and afterward was in charge of the mission at Sault St. Marie, Mich. Later, and for several years he has been at the head of the Harrisburg, Pa., mission. The Harrisburg Telegraph of October 18, under the heading, "Gospel Car Goes to Florida," printed the following story of Mr. Fulton's departure: "The people of Florida will hear the gospel preached this winter from the rear platform of the Bethesda Missions by gospel car, manned by

Many years ago Mr. Fulton was a friend and political co-worker of John T. McCann, the Brooklyn boss, who finally served a term in prison for a political crime. It will be remembered that McCann was charged with turning enough votes from Fulton in 1904 to elect Cleveland. Mr. Fulton says that McCann was a very tender hearted man and was beloved by all who knew him, that he did not use tobacco or liquor and was strictly moral. He admits that he corrupted the politician as has been generally supposed, but that people liked him so well they were glad to vote as he directed. He says he always controlled elections with love and not with money. McCann, after being released from confinement, soon died of a broken heart.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton are interesting people, and the people of this community are looking them welcome. Among the recent arrivals at Daytona Beach are Dr. C. M. Swenson, wife and two children of Littleton, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Fowler and four children of Erie, Pa. They came to stay.

Leo Rosenack, who has been conducting a wood car market on Orange avenue in Daytona, has moved his business to the corner of Main street and Grandview avenue, Daytona Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hallard entertained a party of friends last night at their home, 209 Grandview avenue. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Nick, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Apple, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Myers, Andrew Campbell, and Mrs. G. O. Miller, all of Pasadena, N. C.; Samuel Kincaid, all of Greenville, N. C.; E. C. Miller and Robert Cookman. There were dancing, refreshments and a good time generally. Music was furnished by the new orchestra recently organized and constituted of E. C. Miller, Samuel Goodman, Thomas Apple and J. W. Hallard.

Many years ago Mr. Fulton was a friend and political co-worker of John T. McCann, the Brooklyn boss, who finally served a term in prison for a political crime. It will be remembered that McCann was charged with turning enough votes from Fulton in 1904 to elect Cleveland. Mr. Fulton says that McCann was a very tender hearted man and was beloved by all who knew him, that he did not use tobacco or liquor and was strictly moral. He admits that he corrupted the politician as has been generally supposed, but that people liked him so well they were glad to vote as he directed. He says he always controlled elections with love and not with money. McCann, after being released from confinement, soon died of a broken heart.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton are interesting people, and the people of this community are looking them welcome. Among the recent arrivals at Daytona Beach are Dr. C. M. Swenson, wife and two children of Littleton, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Fowler and four children of Erie, Pa. They came to stay.

Leo Rosenack, who has been conducting a wood car market on Orange avenue in Daytona, has moved his business to the corner of Main street and Grandview avenue, Daytona Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hallard entertained a party of friends last night at their home, 209 Grandview avenue. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Nick, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Apple, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Myers, Andrew Campbell, and Mrs. G. O. Miller, all of Pasadena, N. C.; Samuel Kincaid, all of Greenville, N. C.; E. C. Miller and Robert Cookman. There were dancing, refreshments and a good time generally. Music was furnished by the new orchestra recently organized and constituted of E. C. Miller, Samuel Goodman, Thomas Apple and J. W. Hallard.

On "the night before Christmas," each lassie or lad is a large question mark to their mother and "dad." Too old for a toy and too young for a gun. What can we get them that's worth while and don't run into foolish expense, and is gone in a day—Something that lasts and is more than just play?

By Jingo I'll tell you, fond mother and dad, A "BIKE" is the gift for that lassie or lad. There isn't a thing in old Santa Claus' shop From the basement clear up to the attic on top That's as useful and lasting, and will bring so much joy As a CHRISTMAS BICYCLE for that girl or boy.

When Santa Claus Wields the Paint Brush

When Christmas time comes you want things bright and merry. And paint helps you have that kind of a Christmas—bright and merry and jolly. Paint, too, is a sensible Christmas purchase. It does no harm to be practical, even at Christmas time.
